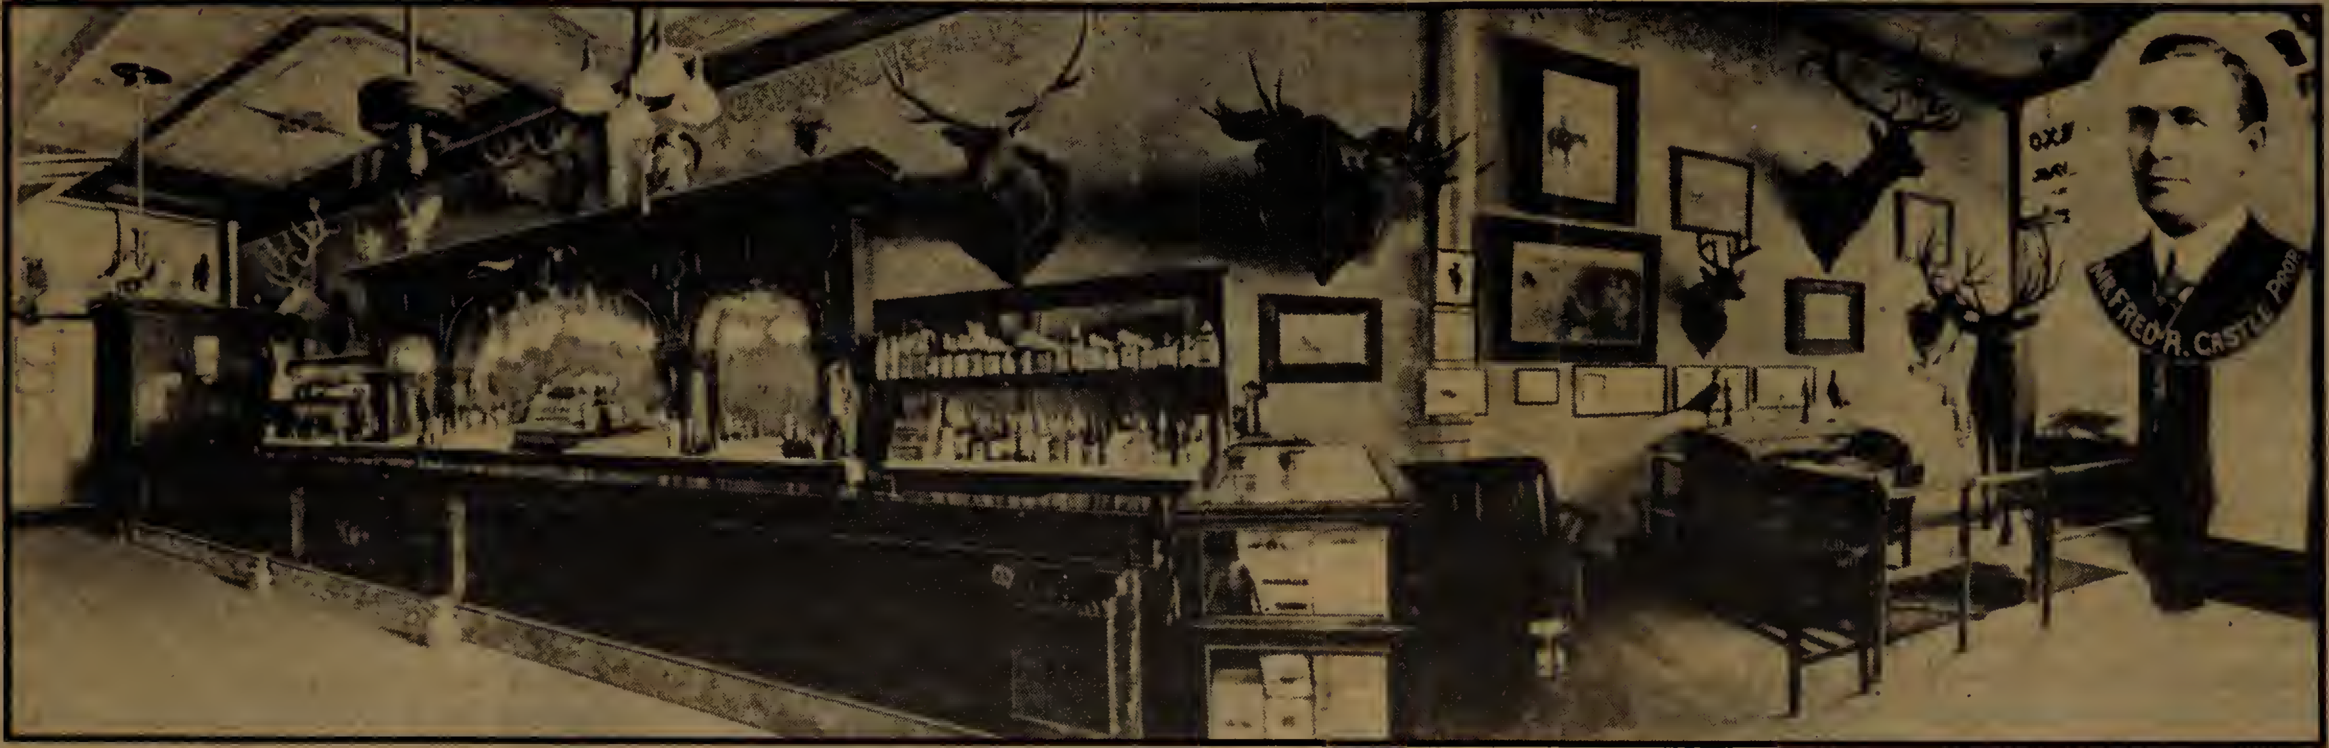
The cattlemen felt at home



Did you ever see a triple width postcard, 3½ x 16½ inches? Our photo this week is by courtesy of Richard A. Long, OPPD electrical engineer. It shows the bar room and adjacent office in the Iler Grand Hotel about 1912. (We're reproducing about two-thirds of the picture.)

The Iler Grand was built in 1898, probably in time for the Trans-Mississippi Exposition trade. It was named for Peter E. Iler, co-owner beginning in 1870 of the Willow Springs Distillery, and one of the incorporators 12/1/83 of the Union Stock Yards, South Omaha. Proprieter of the hotel in 1899 was Milton Powell; in 1900, Rome Miller; 1909-13, Fred A. Castle (with John W. Hill in 1910); followed by P. W. Makesell. The Iler Grand was razed about 1919, and replaced by the Hill Hotel, 16th and Howard Streets.

Manager of the bar in 1912 was Harry C. Ryan, assisted by bartender John. C. Ragan. Note the old cash registers, telephone and lights. The stuffed animals and birds (including an American eagle) made the clientele feel at home. They were largely cattlemen and sheep raisers from outstate and Wyoming.

The eight spittoons were for the expectorations of chewing tobacco. This confection was advertised with the same psychological appeals as nicotinic and alcoholic goodies today. The 3/16/15 World-Herald had a big ad for Star Chewing Tobacco, only 10 cents for a 16-ounce plug. The captions were "Men Who Chew Are Men Who Do" and "It's always Star when good fellows get together." Two engineers were pictured with transit, rod and a plug of Star. The text explained that non-tobacco chewing nations failed to complete the Panama Canal. It took tobacco chewing Americans to get the job done. (But Grandma Diehl always said Grandpa died of Bright's disease before he was 60, from too much chewing tobacco.) Produced by Liggett and Myers, Star was the world's leading brand.

A biography of Fred A. Castle appears in Volume II of Wakeley's "History of Omaha and Douglas County." He was born April 4, 1869 in Ashtabula, Ohio, to Civil War sailor Henry B. Castle and Scottish native Christy Morrison. He attended Oberlin and Western Reserve Medical College, Cleveland, Ohio, before settling in Omaha in 1899, as Mutual insurance agent.

According to the 3/16/15 World-Herald, his Castle Hotel at 16th and Jones was to open formally Saturday March 20 with a dance. The six-story fireproof 130-room hotel was built by Dr. Harold Gifford for $185,000: architect, John McDonald; contractor, Selden-Breck. A 150-room addition, opened 10/1/16, made it the second largest hotel in Nebraska. Many luncheon club and convention-goers fondly remember the Castle, now a parking lot.—H. W. Becker

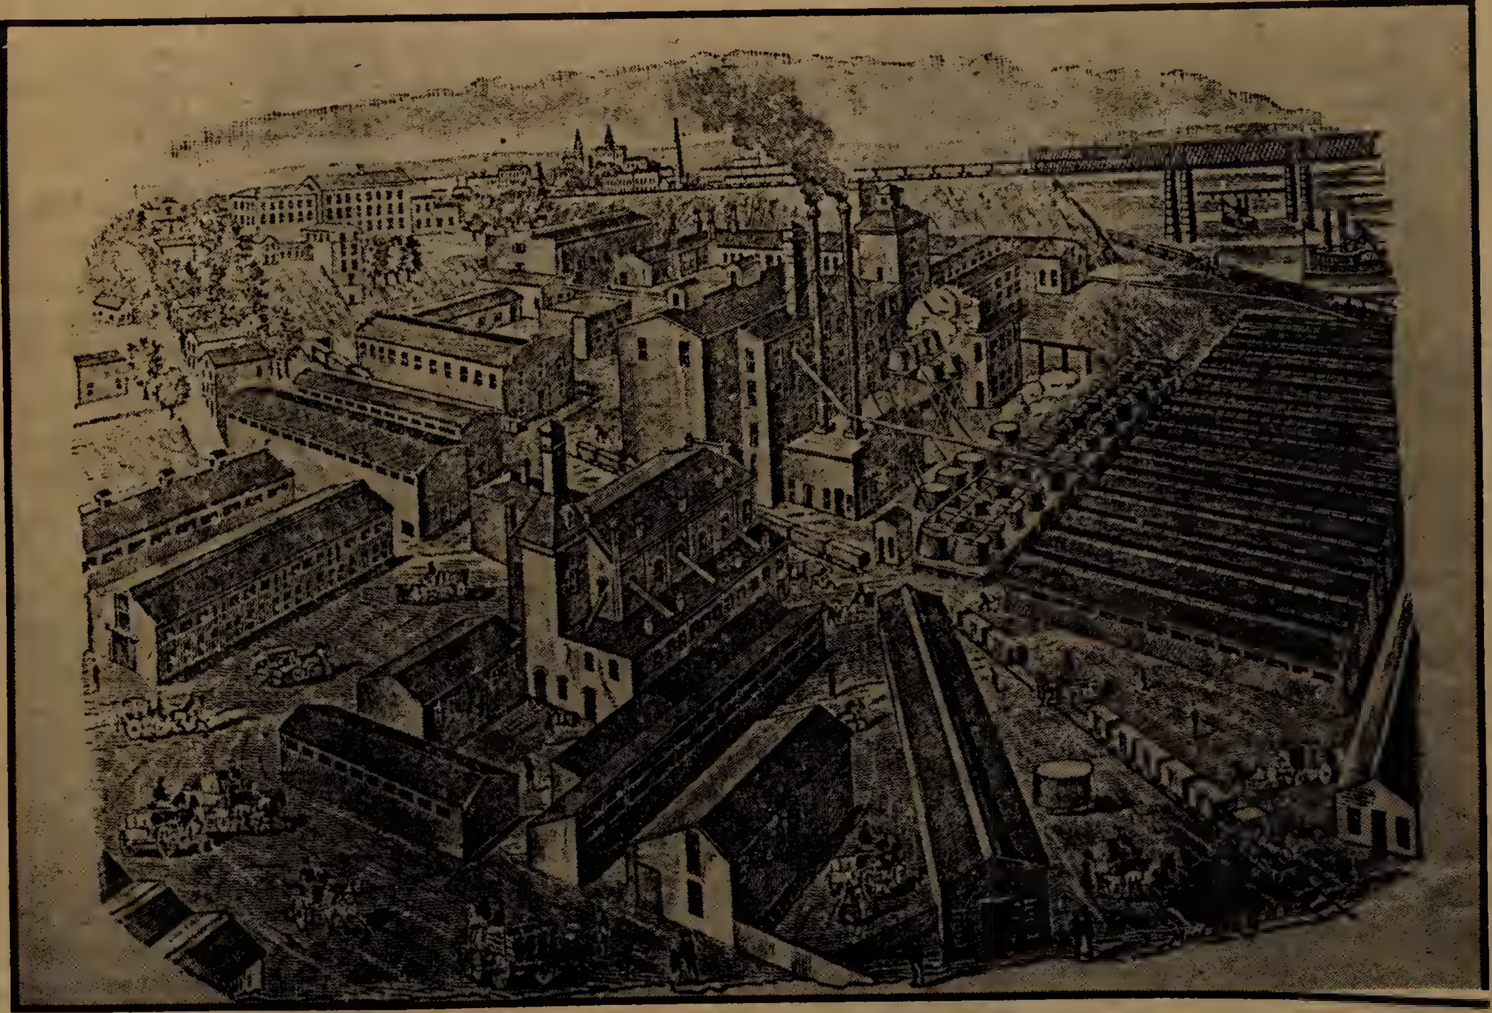
History in Photos

Distillery was 3rd largest

Today we commemorate national Prohibition in the United States which took effect 60 years ago yesterday Wednesday, after ratification by 32 states a year before of the 18th Amendment to the Constitution. Here's the first of its three sections:

"After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is strictly prohibited." Enforcement was under the Volstead Act (named for the Minnesots Congressman.)

However, in November 1916 a majority of voters had approved Prohibition in Nebraska, to take effect 5/1/17. This shut down forever the Willow Springs Distillery of our picture (at 4th and Pierce Streets, third largest in the United States). We borrowed it from Alfred Sorenson's "Omaha Illustrated" published in January 1888.



We see the first Union Pacific Railroad bridge, completed in March 1872. It was replaced in 1887. The towers on the hill mark Omaha High School and Creighton University. The nearby steeple is that of St. Philomena Cathedral at 9th and Harney Streets. Uphill west of the distillery is the packinghouse of James E. Boyd, twice mayor and later governor of Nebraska. Across the tracks is a shot tower.

The Willow Springs Distillery had been confiscated by the U.S. government, I think, for evasion of taxes. It had been sold in 1870 to Philip E. Iler, James G. Megeath and John McCormick. The latter two sold out in 1872-3 to Joseph D. Iler and M. W. Kennard, who enlarged it from year to year. By 1886 capacity was 12,000 gallons a day, of rye, bourbon, alcohol and cologne spirits. Annual consumption of grain was over 500,000 bushels; of coal, over 10,000 tons. Annual tax was $2,000,000; payroll, $80,000, for 125 men.

← PETER E. NOT PHILIP

By 1900 Willow Springs was a branch of the Standard Distilling and Distributing Co. (Whiskey Trust), P. E. Iler continuing as president. Adolph L. Meyer was president in the last years.

Iler was determined to strike natural gas, or coal. There was a rumor that the U.P., drilling an artesian well near the western edge of the bridge, had struck coal at 600 feet. Iler formed a company with Herman Kountze, W. A. Paxton and John A. McShane, capitalized at $30,000, to bore a well in the distillery grounds, a block west of the present Quaker Oats Co. They struck a seven-foot vein of coal 511 feet down on 11/25/86. It was front page news in the Bee, the next day.

With rejoicing and excitement a drill core was sent to Creighton University for analysis. But it wouldn't burn. This makes me wonder about all the coal reserves we're supposed to have in the U.S. Will they burn?

The June 1966 Nebraska History quarterly, has an article by Dr. Robert Manley, "Wealth From The Plains: The Search for Coal in Nebraska." Many pockets were found that soon petered out. Many investors' savings were a total loss.

There are or have been commercial coal mines in most of the states surrounding Nebraska. So why not in Nebraska? The coal strata must dip too far down. This is a blessing in sparing the desolation of coal country. — H. W. Becker.

PETER E. ILER

ILER, PETER ERVIN, was born at Wooster, O., Feb. 10, 1840. His father was Conrad Iler, a well-to-do farmer, and his mother, Julia Strine, daughter of a prominent family of that section. His early education was acquired in the common schools of his native city, and his collegiate training at Skyler college, Republic, O. Mr. Iler began active life in a humble but lucrative business, conducting a wholesale peddling wagon through Ohio, at which he continued for about twelve years. While thus employed he fulfilled a contract with the government for the supply of the 1st O. Regt. with rations. He removed to Nebraska in 1866, settling at Omaha, where he has ever since resided. After his arrival here, in partnership with Joseph D. Iler, Marsh Kennedy, James G. Megeath, and Samuel D. Megeath, he established the Willow Springs distillery, and in 1872 the Willow Springs Distillery Co. was organized under his management, jointly with Henry Suessenbach. For twenty years this institution did an extensive business in the manufacture of spirits and the feeding of stock. In the early '90s this organization became a member of the whisky trust, and its operation was suspended. Mr. Iler was one of the original incorporators of the Union Stock Yards Co., in the new pork and beef packing center of South Omaha. He was a member of the first board of directors of the company, which began with an authorized capital of $1,000,000 and a subscription of $700,000. He was also a heavy holder of stock in the Union Stock Yards bank and the railroad company of the same name, and one of the men who organized the South Omaha Land syndicate for the development of its growth as a city. Mr. Iler's zeal in advancing the interests of Omaha was manifested when it was proposed, in the winter of 1898, to hold in Omaha a second exposition. He was an ardent advocate of the venture, contributed heavily toward its promotion, and for many months pushed it with his characteristic energy. A short time before the date of the opening of the exposition, however, his health became impaired, and for a time his life was despaired of, and as a consequence some of the great attractions which he had planned for the exposition were abandoned. Mr. Iler has large holdings of Omaha realty, and South 16th St. in the vicinity of his former residence at 16th and Jackson is largely indebted to him for its development. He has erected and owns several large buildings in that vicinity, and in 1898, as the Exposition was coming on, he expended about $60,000 in the erection and equipment of the Iler-Grand hotel, which has since been greatly enlarged. In politics he is a republican. On May 7, 1863, while still a resident of Ohio, he was married to Mary Ann Deuzer. Five children are the issue of the union, namely: William, Ervin, May, Edith, and Bessie. In 1899, owing to the encroachments of the business section upon his home on 16th St., Mr. Iler purchased a palatial home at 1240 South 10th St., where he now resides. Mrs. Iler died Mar. 19, 1904.

PETER E. ILER.

Peter E. Iler, for a half century a resident of Omaha, is now living retired in the enjoyment of well earned rest and the comforts of life, which his former industry and business ability have brought to him. He was born in Wooster, Ohio, February 10, 1840, a son of Conrad and Julia (Strine) Iler, and spent his youthful days in the Buckeye state, where he acquired a common school education. In 1866 he sought the opportunities of the growing west and, disposing of his wholesale liquor business at Tiffin, Ohio, removed to Omaha, where he established a similar enterprise, continuing active along that line until 1910. He built the Willow Springs distillery, which he operated for a long period, or until he sold out to the trust. Into other fields of business he also extended his efforts, his cooperation being sought, for his sound judgment and enterprise were widely recognized. He was one of the promoters of the Omaha Stock Yards, serving as the first secretary of the company, in which position he continued for a number of years, and as such did much to promote the interests of the business at this point. He also became one of the organizers of the South Omaha Land Company, of which he was elected the first secretary, and in that position still continues. It was this company which built and developed all of South Omaha, now a most populous district. He also built the six story building on Howard street occupied by the Byrne & Hammer Dry Goods Company and which at the time of its erection in 1900 was the finest business block of the city. Mr. Iler was also one of the organizers of the Omaha Brick & Tile Company, of which he became the first president, still occupying that position. He erected a building at No. 1112 Harney street and built and owned the Iler Grand Hotel, at one time a leading hostelry of Omaha. This he subsequently sold. He has been a member of the Omaha Board of Trade for years and served as its president in 1888. He has always been active in furthering the development of the city and has been a generous contributor to all plans and projects looking to its further growth, progress and improvement.

In Ohio, in 1863, Mr. Iler was married to Miss Mary Denzer, who died March 19, 1904. They were the parents of five children, of whom four are yet living: William E., of Omaha, who has one son, William E., Jr.; May, now the widow of J. S. Weitzell, and a resident of Omaha; Edith, who is now Mrs. H. J. Edwards, of Newark, New Jersey, and has a daughter, Bess Iler; and Bess, who is now Mrs. R. L. Hamilton, of Lincoln, Nebraska, and has three children, Jane Lee, Iler Ervin and Edith Susan.

Politically Mr. Iler is a republican, having long given unfaltering support to the principles of that party. Fraternally he is a Mason and he is identified with nearly all the clubs of the city. Five years ago he retired from active business to enjoy a rest which he has truly earned and richly deserves, his attention now being given merely to the supervision of his investments, which have been so judiciously placed that they return to him a gratifying annual income.

PETER E. ILER, distiller, was born at Wooster, Ohio, February 10, 1840, and lived there until eight years of age. He moved to Tiffin, Ohio, where he resided until he came to Omaha in 1866. He was in the liquor and distillery business in Tiffin up to 1867, when he sold out and permanently located at Omaha. He was married at Tiffin to Mary A. Denzer, a native of that place. They have four children—William E., May, Edith and Bessie. One son, Augustus K., died in infancy. He has been an A., F. & A. M. for several years. Mr. Iler is president of the Manufacturer's and Merchant's Union and a member of the National Distillers' Association, being an officer and director therein. The firm of Iler & Co. is now composed of Peter E. Iler and Joseph D. Iler.

CENTURY FLASHBACK

Dec. 14, 1875, Omaha Herald

About midnight Sunday Iler & Co.'s wholesale liquor house in the Central Block on Farnam Street was discovered to be on fire. It was known the building was filled with alcohol, whiskey and other inflammable liquids and that if but a single barrel of alcohol exploded, the consequences would be fearful to contemplate.

Notwithstanding this, our firemen went bravely to work and in a little more than an hour had the flames under complete control.

The second story was filled with high wines in barrels, the most combustible liquid there is among spirits. That floor was accordingly flooded and protected in every way.

The fire was managed in such a way as to command the admiration of all present, among whom was Col. E. R. Dorsey of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, an experienced fireman of the great city of Baltimore. He said he never saw a fire department display more efficiency. He had predicted the burning of the entire block at the outset. The origin of the fire is unknown, as there were no stoves in the basement, where it was discovered.

Until further notice, the noon prayer meeting will be held at Meyer's Hall. Tomorrow the subject of prayer will be "the business men of Omaha, that they may be induced to attend these meetings." Gratifying results of the meetings have already appeared.

It is no longer considered a mark of superiority in Omaha for a man to appear in society with his shirt front embellished profusely with tobacco spit.

CENTURY FLASHBACK

Dec. 26, 1875, Omaha Herald

On Christmas afternoon, Messrs Iler & Co. gave their employes of the Willow Springs Distilling Co. and their store a splendid Christmas dinner.

The distillers, millers, beer runners, mashers, gaugers, storekeepers, coopers, engineers, firemen, yardmen, cattle feeders, stock tenders, errand boys, grain buyers, porters, clerks, bookkeepers and head men of the various works, and the roustabouts, comprising a small regiment of men, a few invited guests, and the employers assembled in the spacious dining hall of that prince of caterers, J. E. Markel.

All were so cleanly dressed and shaven that it was with difficulty that they recognized each other in their holiday clothes. In fact, a finer set of employes never assembled together.

The tables, with their various pyramids of fruits, cakes, etc., the spotless white napkins and tablecloths, the bright silver service, the glittering cut glass and clean delft ware gave the tables the appearance of elegant luxury.

The dinner was grand. Oysters raw, oysters fried, oysters a la soup, meats, game, poultry, cake, ice cream, fruits, nuts, wines and, in fact, all the delicacies of the season were in great profusion. Toasts and speeches were indulged in by Mayor Chase, the respective reporters of the Bee and Republican, and others.

Firm Follows Beverages From Tonics to Soda

This article is one in an occasional series about long-time businesses in the Midlands.

By Steve Jordon

World-Herald Staff Writer

If the Willow Springs Bottling Co. still makes old-time sarsaparilla, peach soda and birch beer, it's no accident.

The small soda pop company traces its history to a time when Willow Springs was a name attached to Omaha's only distillery, a spirits factory which employed 125 men and was reputed to be the third largest in the country.

"We were surprised that the company went back that far," said George Riedmann, now owner of the company operating at 8510 K St.

Three generations of Riedmanns have worked for Willow Springs, dating to German immigrant George Riedmann, the present owner's grandfather, who was a brewmaster before prohibition.

Today, Willow Springs mixes and bottles its own brand of soda, Goody, including such flavors as lemon sour, orange pineapple, cherry cola, carbonated lemonade, raspberry, cherry nut and pale ginger ale.

Historic Businesses

Sixteen distributors in Omaha, Norfolk and other communities sell Goody pop, including Riedmann's own store, Cornhusker Beverage, next door to the bottling plant.

84th St

The firm also custom bottles pop for other companies, including Double Cola, Nesbitt, Frosty Root Beer and Clicquot Club mixes.

John J. Gaps III/World-Herald

George Riedmann at Willow Springs Bottling . . . Grandfather was a brewmaster.

Riedmann said the company produces about 800 cases of soda a day when its machinery is running, usually five or six days a week during the warm months and three days a week in the winter.

Willow Springs — Riedmann said he doesn't know the origin of the name — once produced nearly 2.5 million gallons of spirits, alcohol and whiskey a year, according to historical reports on early Omaha commerce.

An Omaha history written by Judge Arthur Wakeley traces the firm to a government condemnation sale in 1866.

James G. and Samuel D. Megeath bought the outfit and equipment of the McCoy Distiller in Council Bluffs at the sale, Wakeley wrote, moving the plant to Omaha.

The Megeaths in turn sold their interest to Ilers and Kennard, who incorporated the Willow Springs Distilling Co. in 1872.

The company paid over $2 million every year for 25 years in federal alcohol taxes, the history said.

Health Tonic Popular

Riedmann said he understands that the company's most popular drink was a health tonic, an alcohol mixture commonly used by people as a remedy for all sorts of ailments before the standardization and regulation of medicine in the early 20th Century.

By 1916, the distillery was a branch of Standard Distilling & Distributing Co. at Fourth and Pierce Streets, and had a neighboring branch: Willow Springs Brewing Co.

Riedmann said that's where his grandfather, George, came in.

As the health tonic industry slacked off, Riedmann said, the company turned more and more to beer, moving to Fourth Street and Woolworth Avenue.

Riedmann's father, Alfred, became an apprentice at the company about 1915.

When prohibition began in 1920, the firm turned toward making malt syrup, a non-alcoholic product which people bought to use in their own home-brewed beer, and soft drinks.

Riedmann said that, according to company lore, an employee who was supposed to be supervising a huge vat of malt accidentally let the mixture burn.

Afraid of losing his job, the man did not report the burning. The malt was canned and sold. Customers soon returned the spoiled malt and asked for refunds. The expensive refunds convinced the company to get out of the malt business altogether.

Soft Drinks Only

Alfred Riedmann and a partner, Ed Nelson, later bought the plant. When Nelson's health failed after World War II, Riedmann became the sole owner, passing the firm to two of his sons, Al and George.

The company was the first to introduce Squirt in Omaha, and produced Dr. Pepper and Orange Crush, Riedmann said.

When the bottling industry changed so that franchise agreements with national brands were the key to sales and expansion, the Riedmanns sold their plant at 18th and California to 7 Up and moved first to 20th and N Streets and to the present location in 1968.

Riedmann said he didn't fully appreciate the company's history until last fall, when officials from River City Roundup contacted him as part of a recognition of long-time Omaha companies.

Will the company continue?

Riedmann said there is still room in the marketplace for small bottlers. The bottling operation does about the same amount of business as the companion Cornhusker package liquor and soft drink store.

Together, the two had a 28 percent increase in business last year. Riedmann's son-in-law, Jim Sobczyk, manages the retail store.

"He might be the next generation," Riedmann said.

William R. Duvall 100

Thelma Duvall Carpenter

William R. Duvall was born in Ohio in 1844. He was a very short man, only 5′4″ tall, with black hair and almost black eyes. He moved to Indiana with his parents when he was in his early teens. There he attended school, until he completed the classes offered. At that time, the War between the States had begun and he enlisted in the Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He participated in some of the most difficult battles. He was wounded in the Battle of Buzzard's Roost, after which he returned to his home in Indiana.

He decided to further his education and enrolled in the Indiana State University at Bloomington. He was married in 1864 to Sarah Elizabeth Carter, also a native of Ohio. She had come to Indiana as a small child with her parents.

In the early 1870's, he took his wife and children and moved to Illinois. There they lived until 1879 when they came to Kansas and settled in McPherson County. In 1888 he decided to run for the office of County Surveyor. He served in that capacity until little dissatisfied, clamored for a change, which when made, was not satisfactory,) he was re-instated and held the position until he was mustered out, which occurrence took place November 28, 1865. In March, 1866, he returned to Anderson County and was engaged in farming until 1869, during which time in 1868 he was nominated on the Republican ticket and was elected to the Legislature without any opposition, which position he tried to fill—as as has ever been his desire when trust has been reposed in him—honestly, faithfully and without dissimulation. In the fall of 1869 he moved to Garnett, since which time, he has been engaged part of the time, in the bricklaying business, and part of the time in mercantile pursuits.

C. F. HENSON & BROTHER, lumber and building materials. This business was established in 1873 by J. D. Woodworth. In 1876 Mr. Woodworth purchased a hardware stock, and March 11, 1878, C. F. Henson was admitted as a partner, the business being conducted under the style of J. D. Woodworth & Co. In January, 1881, the style changed to Woodworth & Henson. In April, 1882, Mr. Woodworth sold out his interest to the above firm. They have an extensive trade, carrying in the yard all kinds of lumber, building materials, etc. The stock in that business amounts to about $12,000. Their store is also well supplied with all kinds of hardware, etc., and the demands of their trade in this business compelled them to carry a fine stock of about $5,000. They do quite a business in the manufacture of tinware. C. F. Henson, the senior member of the firm, came to Garnett in 1870 and was for a time engaged in contracting and building. J. F. Henson, his partner came here in 1871 and followed the same business for several years. Was also for a time employed as a clerk in store of Woodworth & Henson. The brothers are natives of Clinton County, Ohio, are both practical business men, and do a heavy business in their line.

J. G. HIATT, of Hiatt & Lanter, merchants, was born in Wayne County, Ind., March 24, 1838, and was raised on a farm. In 1852 he moved to Madison County, Iowa, where he followed agricultural pursuits. In July, 1858, he came to Anderson County; resided with his father, Nathan Hiatt, and assisted on the farm. Two years later he purchased land four miles from Garnett and began to farm on his own account. In the fall of 1861 he enlisted in Company A, Second Kansas Cavalry, and was mustered out in April, 1865, after which he followed agricultural pursuits up to February, 1871, when he engaged in the grocery business in Garnett. This he disposed of eighteen months later,-and for six months was engaged in the livery business, afterward employed as a salesman in the general merchandise business. On January 1, 1879 he engaged in this business in company with C. W. Durstine. The latter died, and his interest was sold to J. T. Lanter in February, 1882. The firm carry a nice stock of general merchandise with some $8,000, and do an extensive trade. Mr. Hiatt was married in Greeley, Kansas, in 1860, to Mary E. Pattie. They have seven children.

EDWARD S. HUNT, the oldest real estate man in Anderson County, his office being established in 1867. Was born of Quaker parentage in South Charleston, Clark County, Ohio, in 1832. Was educated for a civil engineer. Was married in 1855 to Delphina Coffin of Wayne County, Ind. Removed from Ohio to Indiana in the fall of 1863 and engaged in pork-packing and dry goods. Removed to Kansas in November, 1867, and engaged in the real estate business at Garnett. Was appointed right of way commissioner on the L. L. & G. R. R., in 1870 and has since been in the real estate department of that road. He was elected County Treasurer in 1872 and re-elected in 1874, serving two terms. Received the appointment of local land agent from the M. K. & T. R. R. Company in 1876, which he still holds. He is a member of Delphian Lodge No. 44, A., F. & A. M., Zion Chapter No. 24, Garnett, Kan., and Tancred Commandery No. 11, Ottawa, Kan. He is now engaged in real estate and fish culture.

GEORGE W. ILER, real estate and loan agent, was born in Fredericks County, Md., February 28, 1830, and reared on a farm. At the age of nineteen years he removed to Indianapolis, Ind., and there learned the trade of house and sign painter and followed it as an occupation. He came to Leavenworth, Kan., May 14, 1857, and carried on a painting and wall paper establishment at Leavenworth until February, 1859. He went to Neosho County and with others located Osage City, which he afterward abandoned. In the latter part of March, 1859, he came to Anderson County and located at Garnett and formed a partnership with J. G. Smith and carried on a general merchandise business until the fall of 1851, when he sold out and went East for a time on account of his wife's ill health. During the war he served in the Tenth Kansas State Militia and was Captain of Company B, of that regiment from 1863 until after the Price raid. During this period his main business was dealing in live-stock. In 1866 he again engaged in general merchandise business, continuing until some time in 1869. Was then for some four years engaged in agricultural pursuits, general trading, etc. In 1873 he became associated with S. Kaufman in real estate business. In August, 1874, they purchased the Plain Dealer, and when the firm dissolved in 1878, Mr. Iler took the real estate business, which he has since continued. He is land agent for the M. K. & T. R. R. Company. He was Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Garnett at the time it was pre-empted in 1862, and held that office for several years. Was elected County Commissioner in 1879 and served two years, and has served many times in the City Council of Garnett. Mr. Iler is District Deputy Grand Master of the I. O. O. F., and has filled that position almost continuously since 1866.

Jacob Iler joined the 49th. Regiment when it was formed in Aug, 1861, he was assigned to Company C, Ohio Infantry as a third sargent, at Sulphur Springs Ohio.
Promoted to Second Sargent Sept. 1862.
Promoted to First Sargent Jan.1,1863.
Promoted to Second Lieutenant Feb.2,1863.
Transferred to Co. B, Nov. 22, 1863, at Murfreesboro Tenn.
Promoted to First Lieutenant March 11,1864 after First Lieutenant Jacob Miller was killed at the Battle of Mission Ridge.
Promoted to Captain Nov. 14,1864 after Captain McCormack resigned at Pulaski Tenn.

While serving in San Antonio Texas in Aug.1865, he contracted the Flux and Chronic Diarrhea, he was treated by the Regimental Surgeon a Doctor William H. Park.

He was discharged when the Regiment was mustered out in Victoria Texas Nov.30,1865.

After the war he never recovered from the disease and was unable to work, so he applied for a pension. Following is a letter to the Bureau of Pensions by Jacob Iler explaining why the Regiment Surgeon, Dr. Park would not admit to treating him in Texas.

Dear Sirs:

I hereby certify on honor that I have made every effort in my power to procure the Regimental Surgeon's affidavit as to my sickness while in the service of the United States Army. I have written to W.H. Park, Ex-surgeon, 49 Regiment, O. V. V. I. and directed my letters to Bois. D. Ave., Green Co., Mo. but can get no reply.

Can think of no other cause than a little incident while in the service. The circumstances are as follows. His cousin Hamilton Daywalt was my orderly or 1st Sergent for a part of 1863 and 1864 and was in the habit of gambling. And about the time of the Battle of Nashville Tenn. there was an order issured to report any and all such soldiers who were caught in any games for money. I therefore read the order to my company, also privately told Orderly Daywalt not to let me catch him engaged in any of these games. But on or about the 20th day of December 1864, after a heavy march we went into camp for a short time and while I was in my tent asleep the said Orderly Sergent Daywalt did engage in gambling with cards for money with a negroe servant of General Willich and on my awaking I heard some of the boys say, "Orderly, the Captain is waking up. You had better stop playing." His reply was that he did not care. The Captain wanted a chance at me and he could now have it; that he would not stop until he got ready.

After hearing this talk I walked out of my tent and saw money on the board and compelled them to stop, sending the negroe out of my company quarters and reported the Orderly Sergent to the Colonel who reduced him to the rank. The Muster Rolls of that date will coroberate my statement.

Dr. W.H. Park Surgeon, hearing of this was considerable exercised over it and wanted or rather demanded of me tomake out a discharge for his cousin (Daywalt) which I declined to do and stated I did not like to see the boy go home as a Private, that if he would acknowledge to me that he was wrong and I right, I would take his case in consideration. And where a vacancy would occur in his old position I would use my influance to have him reinstated. This did not please the Surgeon, but I was inmovable. Soon after the said Daywalt did come to me and acknowledge that he was wrong and I right and I did cause him to be reinstated as Orderly sometime in June or July 1865.

This is the only difficulty I ever had with the Surgeon W. H. Park. But it may influance him not to make an affidavit as to my sickness while in the army.

J. W. Iler

Another Pioneer Gone

F4231-12222

Conrad Iler, one of the pioneer of Seneca county, and a highly respected resident of Tiffin, died at his home, 81 Circular Street, at four o'clock this morning, aged eighty-five years and twenty-eight days.

He was born in Frederick county, Md, and at the age of 26, Nov, 15, 1816, was united in marriage to Julia Stine, of that county, who survives him. They spent 58 years of happy married life together and in all that time were never parted longer than a month. They were blessed with ten children, five of whom are now living in Omaha, one in Chicago, one in Dakota, one in Ohio and one in California, all married. There are fourteen grand-children and one great grand child.

Mr and Mrs Iler came to Seneca county soon after their marriage, living east of this city until a few years ago, when they took up their residence in town.

Mr. Iler joined the English Lutheran church at the age of eighteen and has been a consistent member ever since. He was a man universally respected by all.

The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted at the English Lutheran Church by Rev. S. Schillen

The Old Salford Store Ledger M.

JOHN R. TALLIS.

This old ledger is in the possession of the Montgomery County Historical Society. Though there is nothing specifically mentioned in the book itself to the effect that it is the ledger of the Salford Store, nevertheless there are good grounds for such an identification.

(a). The names of the patrons indicate that they were residents of Salford and the neighboring townships.

(b). There was a store at Salfordville during the time covered by the ledger, namely 1766 to 1774.

From an entry on the rear cover of the book it appears that the store was in existence as early as 1761. The name of the owner does not appear. We have concluded that Michael Croll made the entries in the book and owned the store. Our reasons are:

(a). The similarity between the handwriting in the ledger and the handwriting of Michael Croll, Justice of the Peace.

(b). The name Mich'l on the cover.

(c). Two rather personal accounts with Jacob Wentz who was the father-in-law of Michael Croll.

(d). In the Penna. Archives 3rd Series, Vol. XIV, page 55, Michael Crawl is mentioned as storekeeper. He is listed for 140 acres, 3 horses, 3 cattle, and 2 servants. This is for the year 1769.

(e). From some of the entries it is evident that the storekeeper was versed in legal matters.

The accounts are rich in information, not only as regards barter and sale in colonial times, but also in respect to names, places, occupations, and family relationships. The accounts are all in English. A list has been made of the persons whose accounts appear in the book. Such a list may seem dry and almost useless. We see its value in this, viz., that many names appear here that do not occur in the church records of the churches of that section that were in existence at that time, nor in the different series of Archives published by our state. It would be worthwhile for anyone who is interested in any of the persons mentioned to go through his account, for like as not valuable information would be found there. All the notes back of the names appear in the Ledger in connection with the names. I have added the punctuation and the possessive apostrophe, but nothing else.

OYLER

The ancestors of this Oyler family in America lived in Maar Parish, in the mountainous state of Hessen, in western Germany.[50] The name Oyler remains a prominent name in the Maar Parish. Oyler, as it is known today, is spelled Euler in German and its German pronunciation sounds like Oyler. Other variations include Eilar, Iler, Iller, Eyler, Oellen, Oil, Oils, Oyle, and possibly others. It is believed that the surname was derived from the occupation of one who makes and sells oil. The Oyler Family Coat of Arms contains three bunches of grapes suggesting that the Oyler family was a maker of wine.

The Oyler Family Coat of Arms, along with other family arms, are located on permanent panels in the German Baptist Church of the Brethern in Maar. The Oyler Coat of Arms consists of a shield containing Cold and red chevron charged with one crescent of gold and accompanied by a gold coin; three bunches of black grapes, two at the top, one on each side of the chevron and one in the center of the bottom. The crest resting atop the shield denotes that of a Baron or Chief, i.e. the helmet is quarter turned with visor closed; and a mantel flowing from the helmet.

A (translated) report of research on the Oyler family by Karl Euler, Major A.D.; Hahnenteichstrabe 42; 6420 Lauterback (Hessen) Germany (Maar Parish) is quoted in part:

"Re: Your letter of November 9, 1981 Family tree Euler from Maar.

I'm glad to discover a distant cousin in the USA. The family tree in my possesion was compiled by my uncle in Maar and my cousin Ferdinand Euler [who] was a parson in Efurt. [The information] came from church records in Maar and Lauterbach, as well as from Baron Riedesel of Lauterbach archives, and from German Geneology Book, Volume 98, which was compiled in 1934 and published in 1946 by Iller-Euler in Bad-Salzschlent. The authors had special difficulty in finding information during the time of the 30 year war (1618-1648) and the seven year war (1756-1763), both of which destroyed much of our country. Clear records are only available from 1766 when the church started keeping records.

However, since your information for the period 1670-1729 is so good, I was able to concentrate on that time. This is what I found: Michael Euler was mayor of Maar in 1677. He died Oct. 22, 1694. Married twice. The second marriage was to Anna Helfenbein on Apr. 4, 1675, and had five children. Their first son Konrad Euler was born Jul. 4, 1675, and died in Maar. In the family link I have followed there is no information on Michael Euler's birth date, nor maiden name of his first wife or whether there were any children from the first marriage.

Also, in this period there is no information Re: Konrad Euler or son Valentine Euler, born 1722, available. I have no idea if this information was deliberately bypassed, which I suspect. The fact that no children from the first marriage [are listed] does not mean that there were none, or it was of no interest to the family tree researchers. It is therefore neces-sary to further investigate this Michael Euler and to learn more about his first marriage.

I will undertake this and report to you further. I'm convinced that your ancestors [Conrad] belong in this space.

Rev. Schnecker from Maar, who is of the same opinion has in the meantime sent you a copy of my family tree...."

The following excerpts are from a letter by Ned E. Oyler, of Eagle, CO, to W. Monroe Oyler of Decatur, IL, on Jul. 1, 1981:

"...The people [in Maar Parish] met [my researcher] with open arms. One person is compiling a book on what happened to the Oyler families that left for America. This person has researched our Oyler line back to 1447 ... and has it drawn out on a sheet of cloth the size of a bed sheet.

"The parish where Conrad Euler was christened in 1697 (other records show him born in 1675), has been repaired and rebuilt a number of times, but they have records of it being there since 1266, suspect that it dates back another 600 years...

"In 1970 a young priest came and eight years ago it [the parish] was repainted...

"The priest had the foresight to photograph all the crests (coats of arms) ... located on panels ... of the interior of the church...

"... It tells how the people would mortgage their land and lose it to Heir Hessen. It also tells how each family would give their children portions [of land], and in 1706 a law was passed forbidding this. It was ignored until 1714 when it was enforced. After this the young people left in large numbers, since they could not own land...."

The earliest known ancestor of this Oyler family in America is Conrad whose descendants used several variations of the name Euler, the most popular being Oyler which is used herein.[51] Conrad was born in 1690 in Maar Parish, state of Hessen, in West Germany. He died in 1751 in Adams Co., PA. (Adams Co., was formed from York Co., PA, on Jan. 22, 1800.) Conrad married Margaret, surname unknown, cal710. Margaret, whose parents are unknown, was born in 1694 in Mannheim in West Germany. Conrad brought his family ~~name~~ to America on the ship "Allen" from Rotterdam, the largest seaport in The Netherlands. They arrived in the Port of Philadelphia, PA,

Bob Iler –

Here is a write-up we talked about, along with a copy of the current six-page database on Walter artifacts. Harley, wife Lorna, and daughter Maribeth were here yesterday (Saturday) for a very nice dinner visit. I went over the matter with Harley, and he is very receptive with some ideas of his own which he will pass by you. He said he would write you soon, even before the reunion, which he does plan to attend.

No promises, but I may be able to get color copies made up of some of the artifacts to supplement the database, perhaps sometime in June.

Hope this much helps, anyway.

√ Shepley Reunion attracts 500

A family reunion held at the Colchester South & Harrow Agricultural Building on Sunday, June 3, attracted a large family response, with 500 people, mostly relatives, attending the Shepley Family Reunion. Some relatives came as far away as Huntsville, Ontario and Vancouver, B.C., responding to and invitation from Harrow resident Glen Shepley.

Glen Shepley began working on the Shepley Family Reunion about three months ago, sending out invitations to a long list of family relatives, including 4 brothers and 3 sisters.

It was something Glenn said, "I just decided to have, so my family and I put it on for the other family relatives."

"I wasn't sure what kind of response I would get, but when the replies started coming back, I realized I was going to need a little help," Glen said.

He started preparing for the Family Reunion on Friday. The reunion offered a menu of barbecued chicken, salads, finger food, hot dogs and entertainment for the children.

Thoughtful Idea from a Grandson of Capt. Walter Cole Iler

Born in Colchester 26 Aug 1864, Walter grew up in a productive and self sufficient farming community in southern Ontario. Attracted to Great Lakes commerce, he became one of the well-known and respected Masters of the big bulk cargo boats, especially the ore boats operated by Pittsburgh Steamship Company. He married Myra Baldwin and fathered three sons, one of whom, Herbert Grant, was my father. Grant's "chosen" was high school sweetheart, Lillian Rosalie Schmidt. She became very close to Walter, and she and Grant sailed often during their courtship and early married life on Walter's boats, in fine style. Walter corresponded often between his boat on passage and Lillian in the home he built for himself and Myra in Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan, where Lil and Grant lived for a while after their marriage in 1925.

As a result of this relationship, many of the articles of Walter's life came into possession of Grant and Lillian, before and after his death in 1939. One of the most prominent of those is the model he made of the Eugene W. Pargny, a 580 foot ore boat, but many photos and pieces of his craftsmanship also remain.

Considering his extended service and reputation in shipping and hazards on the Great Lakes, I have put effort in identifying mementoes and artifacts* with the idea of putting them in a museum where they could be preserved, documented, and displayed as a stand alone collection or part of a broader display of Great Lakes shipping exhibit. One of the first inquiries I did make was of folks in the Colchester South community regarding existence of a suitable museum there. Feasibility being unlikely, I discounted that possibility. My thoughts on a destination museum focussed more on those of maritime emphasis, and perhaps even Pittsburgh Steamship itself.

However, since becoming more acquainted with Walter's beginnings in Ontario, through visits there during Iler Reunions, conversations with Bob Iler, Morgan Iler, brothers Harley and Earl Iler, several books, and working visits with HEIRS and their very helpful staff, other ideas come to mind. To wit - perhaps enough interest can be stirred up to get a local museum started. Bob Iler had invited me to give a presentation at the Iler Reunion this year on Walter and his artifacts I have collected. I had to decline, but suggested that I could send along some documents to start a discussion at the reunion on museum feasibility.

Given the overall nature of Walter's life, it would make sense to honor it locally with a donation of all artifacts. However, any candidate museum must have professional, written policies and protocols for collection, accession, preservation, documentation, exhibition, research archiving, and accreditation. Under those circumstances, I would feel very comfortable in turning over all Walter's artifacts for benefit of history buffs.

Juda Caroline Iler (dau of Jacob) md Edmund Lundy 25 July 1850 in Marion Co. I have info on their family that I would be happy to share. They had 10 children, one of whom I have not been able to identify. If you have info on all children, I would like to compare info so I can identify the missing child.

Amoung my Grandfather Joe Landes's belongings, I found 4 pictures of members of the Iler family. All of the pictures were taken in studios around 1900 plus or minus a few years.

Here they are:
Frank Iler taken at the Reeves Studio, Anderson Indiana. 19424
Ada Iler, taken at Bureka Art Studio, 131 South Meridan Street, Anderson Indiana. 19425
Ada Iler, taken at Dandys, Anderson Indiana. 19427
Alice Iler, taken at Acme Studio, South Main St. between 11th and 12th, Anderson Indiana.
Mrs. Iler, taken at McKeawn, Ground Floor Studio, 12th and Meridian Sts., Anderson, Indiana.

VL

Would like to hear from descendants and will be willing to share a copy of the pictures with them for information concerning how they may have been connected with my family.

Thanks, Phil Landes

Ken Turner's two highly-trained dogs showed their different styles to Iler Reunion attendees. Above, the dog sits down in front of the volunteer who had marijuana scented material in his pocket. Later, there was some light-hearted teasing when the dog sat down in front of one of the sweet, elderly ladies in the front row!

Sketch of Colonel, Later Judge Matt

By Edward Welles, Wilkes-Barre, .

The details of Hollenback's early life at Wyoming (as Wilkes-Barre was called before 1772), are naturally somewhat meagre. At the outbreak of the Revolutionary War he was in business on the west side of the Public Square: and when, in the year 1776, the company of Wyoming men in which he had enlisted, one of two raised by authority of Congress for home defence, was ordered into the general service, he took his younger brother John into partnership, and entrusted the business to him during his own absence. As he had previously, Oct. 17, 1775, been commissioned by Governor Trumbull as ensign in the 24th regiment of the Connecticut militia, he was now by Congress commissioned to the same grade in one of the two independent companies; this action of Congress was dated Aug. 26, 1776. As these two companies were so soon ordered into the main army, Hollenback had the fortune to see service under Washington in the campaigns of 1776 and 1777: being engaged in the actions at Millstone, Bound Brook, Mud Fort, Brandywine and Germantown. Dear Arlene:

Wish I had been more attentive or interested in genealogy when I was growing up as I have become more interested these past few years. Met a "cousin" (we share the same great great grandfather on my Dad's side) when I moved to Naples as he was also doing genealogy and has gotten me reading all kinds of files he has researched.

My mother's mother (my grandmother) was an 'Iler'. I have very little information on my mother's side but am glad to share what I have:

> James William Iler married Wilhemina Isabella Black. Both were born in 1839. Both died, one hour apart, in 1920. To this marriage were born the following:
> Melissa who married a Graham
> Lavina who married a Housman
> Mary Larinda who married a Pierson – this is my grandmother
> Cora who married Clint Newel and lived in Colome, So. Dak.
> James who married a Kate ______
> Pearl who married Clyde Hall

54323 54324

George Allen Pierson, born June 8, 1858, at Osceola, Iowa, died March 22, 1945, in Akron, Colorado. He first married a ___________ Cosson of Des Moines, Iowa, and she died giving birth to Nettie Pierson who married Joe Ross of Denver, Colorado – lawyer.

15501

He then married Mary Lorinda Iler, who was born November 15, 1870, at Pella, Iowa, and died September 4, 1937, at Edgerton, Wyoming. They were married December 10, 1889. They had ten children, then separated and my grandmother went to Wyoming where she lived with one of her sons. I was 18 at the time of her death and we lived on a farm near Platner, Colorado (Washington County). They lived on a farm near Elba, Colorado, before their separation. My grandfather lived alone for some time, then lived with my folks after I had left home. We would see them two or three times a year, but I was about 10 at the time they separated and I didn't get a chance to know them very well.

1919

I had some relatives in Colome, So. Dakota, from whom I received their daughter's hand-me-down clothes all through grade school, which were always beautiful and I loved every item!! They were related to Cora Newell – Cora's daughter. She married an Orlando Shippy and I cannot recall her first name. They had a boy and a girl but both are now deceased. Mom used to always refer to her as her 'cousin'.

I do recall there was some of the family that lived near Dubuque, Iowa, but that's all I ever knew about them -- think they were on my Dad's side of the family though.

Who knows? Maybe we are related!! I looked on the map for Waterman, IL., and that's the area my descendants were from. Can you tie us together from this bit of info?

Always,

Florence Irving

Forgotten cemeteries focus of concern

By Franki Zile
STAFF REPORTER

Some have grown over with weeds and brush. Some have been plowed under to make way for farm crops. Some are small and tucked back along a fence row. But many have all but been forgotten.

This is the plight of many neglected cemeteries in Henry County.

But a group of local residents and officials are wantng to bring forgotten cemeeries back to the forefront of Henry County recognition.

Wednesday, local cemetery nd history enthusiasts Bud ush and Angela Tielking sked Henry County ommissioners to consider eveloping a county cemetery ommission. This commission ould oversee the care of the unty's pioneer cemeteries.

Cemeteries classified as "pioneer cemeteries" are those that were established prior to 1850, Tielking explained. These cemeteries often are the final resting ground for some of the county's original settlers and developers. They also have the graves of several veterans of various wars and skirmishes in our country's history.

In many cases, these pioneer cemeteries have been forgotten. Time has ravaged the graves and hallowed ground to the degree that often there is little, if any, semblance of a cemetery. Others, however are quite noticeable and need only a little tender loving care to return them to a respectable state, Tielking and Bush told the board.

A cemetery commission could help manage the upkeep of these cemeteries. They also would instigate the repair or replacement of some stones if necessary.

Bush said he has cataloged 122 cemeteries in Henry County. Although some may no longer be recognizable, Bush said he was able to trace each of the cemeteries through deed records. Each of these historical sites are irreplaceable places of records, art and local heritage, Tielking said.

The care of many of these cemeteries is delegated to township trustees. However, with so many cemeteries in the county, time and funding to care for these sites through the township is lacking in many cases, Tielking said.

By devising a cemetery commission, the body would work with the township and county officials to find a viable solution to keep the local cemeteries maintained.

A commission also could seek assistance through grants, donations and volunteers, Tielking added.

"The goal is to preserve, restore and properly maintain" the cemeteries in need," Tielking said. "Our pioneers deserve a proper resting place."

"What it is we need is to be organized," Bush added. There are state laws pertaining to the care of cemeteries, however they have been enacted only in more recent times. "Most of those laws come too late to save many of (the old cemeteries.)"

Officials with the Henry County Historical Society said they too would be willing to assist with such a program. Some township trustees also have voiced backing for a cemetery commission.

The commissioners said they would favor such a group that could be entrusted with the care of the county's link to the past. They committed to examining similar commissions in other counties and pursuing some type of action here.

"I feel it's very worthwhile," Commissioner Don Shaw said of the commission. "My wife and I travel and see cemeteries overgrown (and in disrepair.) I feel it's a shame. And it's even more of a shame when it's in Henry County."

Anyone wishing for more information or to get involved in such a commission can contact Tielking at 345-2596 or by email at tielking@knightstown.net or Bush as 521-4149 or at ueb@hcgs.net.

Dear Morgan:

Thanks for sending me the Iler Newletter and the information on the Iler family. We definitely are related! I've never known too much about my mother's family outside of her brothers and sisters, except for the Shippy family in Colome, South Dakota.

Since we lived on a farm and with a large family, we didn't ever get to go visit relatives. It was always them who came to see us. Here's what I know about Mother's side of the family:

54323 15501 H197

My grandparents were: George Allen Pierson and Mary Lorinda Iler. They were married December 10, 1889. To this union were born:

(1)> 54941 Alice Syrinia – July 12, 1890, Manning, Iowa; died July 4, 1972. Alice married someone by the name of Clarence Shadley and always lived near Portland, Oregon. Clarence was a farmer and worked in the paper mill. Alice passed away July 4, 1972; Clarence passed away August 13, 1956. They had Robert who married a Florence and had a child named Roberta. Robert died 2-27-64. I think they also had a second child. Then Alice's second child was Vernon and he was with the Garrett Trucking of Portland, Oregon. Third child was Lloyd, who married a Charlotte ?? and they had two girls. Lloyd died 9-25-1961. Then a daughter, named Blanche, was stillborn. Fifth child was Maxin;e who married a Douglas Cook and they had one boy and one girl, and lived at St. Helen, Oregon. Sixth child was Bonnie who married an Alvin Staff, and had two boys, and lived at St. Helen, Oregon. He was manager of the First National Bank, was a ilot and taught flying. Then next child was Carroll, who married ??? Housman, and have a daughter, Patricia. Then I think there were two more boys ???.

(2)> 54943 George Washington – April 16, 1892, Manning, Iowa; died Aug. 17, 1971. I remember he married Mabel Andrews and they had three children, two girls and a boy. First was Mary, who married a Miles McGregor and had four children: Mary Lou, Bucky (Miles, Jr.), Ethel, and Tom Frederick. Second child was Vivian who married Louis Dilka, and they had a boy called Sunny, then Wanda Mae, Gene, Orland, Sheri, Richard and a stillborn. Third child was Bud (George) who married a Nita ??? the they had a Miles, Raymond, and Ronnie. Bud died January 31, 1974. George and Mabel were divorced and he married a Drew Henshaw and they had a boy - Delmar - who was born with a heart problem and died June 11, 1964. He had married a Dora Ferris and had a daughter, Diane. George always worked in the oil fields of Wyoming, but when retired lived north of Fort Collins, Colorado – Wellington, I think.

(3)> 54945 Goldie May – born February 19, 1894, Coleridge, Nebraska. She married a Roy Pearson. They had two boys: Ralph who married a Estelle ? and had Jean and Jerry. And Frank who married Agnes Moorhead and had a Bobby and Billy. They were then divorced and Goldie married an Ernie Tann and had a daughter, Anna Mae. Anna Mae married a Perry Cavanaugh and had a daughter, Loy. Ernie was murdered, then they were divorced, and Goldie married a John Smith. Anna Mae's life was somehow disrupted and Goldie and John adopted the daughter, Loy. I recalled Goldie and her first two boys lived in Greeley, Colorado. They did a lot of – or at least the boys did – rodeo riding and I don't know what else.

(4)> 54946 Sylvia Ann – my mother. Details later.

(5)> 54947 Oliver James – married Jane Cole and they lived somewhere in the neighborhood of Portland, Oregon. They had no children. Oliver was born in Laurel, Nebraska, on January 25, 1898, and died September 29, 1962. Jane later married a Charles Johnson.

(6)> 54948 Edith Lorinda was born January 25, 1900, in Laurel, Nebraska (died ??). She married a Floyd Booth on February 19, 1916. They had George who married a Maxine and they had 8 children (Sissy, Linda, Billy, Thomas, Loretta, Danny, Earl, and Lonnie). Second child, Marvin, who married a Sandra ?? and they had four children (James, Theodore, Edyie, and Marvin). Third child was Doris who was killed in a bottled gas explosion while in a bathouse in the oil fields of Wyoming, at the age of 17 years. Fourth child was Marion who was killed at the age of 20 when a land mine exploded in France when he was riding in a jeep, on January 24, 1945, during WW II.

(7)> 54949 Blanche Irene was born June 4, 1901, at Dixon, Nebraska, and died December 10, 1990. She married Lloyd Garner and they had one son, William Earl, who married a Geraldine Franes. Wm. Earl and Geri had two children, Richard Wm. and Anita Louise. Lloyd farmed for a while near Elba, Colorado, then they moved to Fort Morgan, Colorado, where they owned and operated a small restaurant. Wm. Earl worked for the telephone company.

⑧> 54950 Gladys Lorene, born July 8, 1904, at Dixon, Nebraska. She married a Mitchell Freeman and they had two children: Virgil Norman (known as Sunny) and Gregory who died at two years of age. Sunny married an Edna Morrow and had a son, Michael, then they were divorced. He then married Millie Chambers and they had a Mitchell, Matthew, and twin girls, Marshelle and Maureen. They were divorced and he married a Joan ???. Gladys and Mitchell ran a booth in the carnival that traveled with circuses. After he died, she continued, then she retired and lived in Fort Collins, Colorado, where she passed away. She was the last of this generation to pass away and I don't have the date of her death, probably 1994 or 95.

⑨> 54951 Raymond Allen, born June 29, 1907, at Dixon, Nebraska, and died 9-25-1992. He married a Lois Tighe (d. 1-27-1961). Uncle Raymond and Aunt Lois had three children: Darlene who married a Laughton Atkins (who drove for some trucking company and had his own 18-wheeler), and they had four children: Rachel, Renee, Raymond, and Ramona. Darrell who married Wanda Rice and had two children, Debbie and David, then married a Pamela ???. John Allen who married a Judy ??? and they had no children. After Aunt Lois passed away, Uncle Raymond married a Carol Mason. When he retired from the Wyoming oil fields they lived at Wellington, Colorado.

Ⓐ> 54952 William Franklin was born December 31, 1911, at New Castle, Nebr. And died Aug. 15, 1974. He married an Evelyn Richards and had two children, Dwayne and Maureen. I think Dwayne was married to someone named Grace and they had no children. He then married a Sammy ??? and they had two children, Billy and Mary. Maureen was married and had three boys, one named Billy.

Ⓑ> 54953 Gertrude Thelma, born October 15, 1913, in New Castle, Nebr. – don't know date of death. Gertrude was married four times – a Clement R. Davis, then Charley McCarthy (we never knew if that was his real name), don't know name of third, but forth was John Siebrand. She had no children. She also worked a booth with a carvinal that traveled with a circus.

Ⓒ> 54954 Lucy Anna , born July 16, 1915, at New Castle, Nebr., died March 27, 1993, in Phoenix, Arizona. Lucy married a Fred Pitsenberg and they had one boy, Fred, Junior. Jr. married a Dee and they had two boys. I think Fred passed away and Lucy married a man by the name of Siebrand who was some relation to Gertrude's husband, and he and Lucy operated a small café and beer joint at Rock Valley, Iowa. When Lucy was married to Fred they operated a booth with a carnival that traveled with a circus.

George, Raymond and Willie all worked in the oil fields of Wyoming, along with Floyd Booth. I remember they were transferred from one oil field to another and I don't know just what they did, except to remember they had something to do with the time the oil well gushered forth! Maybe they were part of the drilling team as I remember something about 'capping' the oil.

54946 ④ As to my mother, Sylvia Ann, the fourth sibling of Mary Iler and George Pierson. She was born February 6, 1896. in Laurel, Nebr. She married Robert Lincoln Thurtell (b. January 22, 1886) on December 31, 1914, in Sioux City, Iowa. Dad was born in Kingsley, Iowa. They moved to Wagner, South Dakota, where he started farming. I don't know why they moved from there, but they moved to Platner, Colorado around 1916 where they purchased a farm about 1.5 miles North of the little town of Platner. They started to build a house and got only the basement finished – six rooms. Due to crop failures, the house was never finished, so they lived in the finished basement until 1931, when they lost everything. Their first child, Edith Eva, was born in Wagner, South Dakota, and the next seven were born in that basement home. They moved into a deserted hotel in Platner. While living here they used to have country square dances every Saturday night in the main lobby of the hotel. These were very successful but neighbors complained of the trash left behind after these dances and they had to quit giving them. Mary was born while we lived in the hotel. We then moved to a deserted grocery store where we lived for almost two years, moving from here to a farm South of Platner which we rented. Cleo Dale was born on this farm. These were the years of the GREAT DEPRESSION and everyone was having much difficuilty eaking out a living. We then rented a farm l/4 mile North and l/4 mile East of Platner where they lived about three years, moving from here to Akron, Colorado. It was in Akron that Dad operated a Creamery for a short while and Mother worked as a pastry chef in a local restaurant.

Platner was a town of about 50 people after the depression, so there were many deserted buildings. Once a thriving town with a hardware, a bank, a hotel – it became a ghost town. Grain elevators to serve the farming community, one grocery which contained the post office, one filling station, one church, and one school for all elementary and high school grades made up the town. The hardware store became the school gymnasium. Today it is still a town of less than 50 residents. Dad and Mother celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on December 31, 1964. At that time Dad was quite ill, but still recognized quite a few people. Shortly afterwards he went into cardiac failure and passed away August 12, 1965.

Six years later, April 11, 1971, Mother married Arnold Nichols (b. 2-16-1896 - died 12-3-1982) and they lived about two years in Las Vegas, Nevada. Moved back to Brush, Colorado, in 1973, where she lived until her death on September 10, 1991, at the age of 95 years, 7 months, 4 days. Mother suffered a ruptured colon in late August, 1991, survived the surgery very well, but pneumonia took her life.

To this union was born: Edith Eva – b. 11-1-1915 - d. 5-2-1990
Erma Rosella – b. 3-17-1917 - d. 2-28-1957
Florence Sylvia - b. 2-21-1919
Robert Dean - b. 12-31-1920 - d. 3-6-1992

Bernard George - b. 7-10-1925

They farmed near Platner, Colorado, when first married, then moved to York, Nebraska, where Lloyd and his twin brother, Floyd, started farming together. Lloyd suffered a grand mal (epileptic seizures) and had to quit farming and went to work in a bakery. His death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage. They had one boy, Robert Charles. After Lloyd's death, Edith went to work as a waitress for eight years, then was Sales clerk in the Rexall Drug for 30 years before retirement. She loved to read, play cards, and dance. She served as president of numerous local organizations and especially enjoyed the Elks. She died of a heart attack following chemotherapy treatments for cancer. She had cancer of the breast then developed Hodgkins disease. I don't have the date of her second marriage, but she married Carl George Kroeker (b. 12-15-1920 – still living and retired at York, Nebraska). To this union was born Larry Richard Kroeker (b. 2-23-1947) and Carol Ann (b. 7-71-1952). Carl worked for a Candy and Tobacco wholesale house for 28 years. Erma Rosella – m. ???Barnett and they lived in Denver, Colorado. I never did know what her husband did for a living but they had one son, Bill. For some reason I don't have any data on Erma. Will have to contact Bill and get all the particulars. I just didn't realize I hadn't completed this area of my geneaology. She was divorced and later married Charles Brahmsteadt of York, Nebraska, where they lived until her death on February 28, 1957. She was sitting at the counter in the drug store where Edith worked having a coca-cola when she had a cerebral hemorrhage. She did have high blood pressure but her death was very unexpected. She and Charles had no children. They farmed just outside York, Nebraska. Bill Barnett worked for Motorola until his retirement two years ago. magnificent job you've done..after much study, the above are the only differences or additions I see. We saw Win and her family in Portland ~~with~~ THIS summer--she and I are the last of our immediate families. She has three of James W Iler's (her grandfather) diaries and you can imagine how we were glued to them. One included his yearlong stay in the mountains of Colorado cutting timber for the mines, saving money to get married! At one TIME he had lost his hunting knife. You could feel the tragedy in his description of the search and how very important were the things we take for granted.

Happy Holidays to you.

Regards,

Cecelia
